“I am extremely honoured to be chosen by my fellow trustees to serve as chair of the newly elected Board of Trustees of the Newfoundland and Labrador English School District,” said Goronwy Price. “We have a great opportunity to influence the direction of public education in our province and I look forward to working with my trustee colleagues to continue to improve education for our students. Good discussions were had this weekend and I am confident that we will work together in a student-centred approach to public education.”
